

Hope Star

WEATHER
Arkansas - Rain Tuesday night, Wednesday partly cloudy rain in northwest portion, colder.

VOLUME 36—NUMBER 38

(AP)—Means Associated Press.
(NEA)—Means Newspaper Enterprise Ass'n.

HOPE, ARKANSAS, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1934

Star of Hope Press, 1927;
Consolidated January 18, 1929.

PRICE 5c COPY

GERMAN REVOLT IS FEARED

Here and There

Editorial By ALEX. H. WASHBURN

DO you remember this guy?" is the message scribbled on the edge of a newspaper clipping mailed me from New Orleans by Stanley Andrews, old partner of mine on the El Dorado Daily News (1923-27). The newspaper clipping has a picture of T. H. Sisk, agent of the United States Department of Justice, who came East from San Francisco to work on the Lindbergh kidnapping case, traced some of the ransom money, then got his "break" from a filling station operator, and made the arrest of Bruno Richard Hauptmann. Do I remember Sisk? I'll tell you about that.

City Thanksgiving Service for Hope Wednesday Night

All Congregations to Meet at First Presbyterian at 7:30

HOLT WILL PREACH

Offering Will Be Divided Among the Four Participating Churches

Hope's leading churches will join hands in a community Thanksgiving service to be held Wednesday night at First Presbyterian church.

A special program has been arranged with the Rev. Guy D. Holt, pastor of First Christian church, slated to deliver the sermon. Mrs. Kate Scott Holland will be in charge of the musical program.

No services will be held Wednesday night at the Baptist, Methodist or Christian churches, the congregations having been invited to the Presbyterian church.

Last year the annual Thanksgiving program was held in the First Baptist church with the Rev. E. Clifton Rule delivering the sermon.

A community offering will be taken Wednesday night, the proceeds to be divided between the four churches, it was announced.

The service will start promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

County Mergers Matter of Time

Local Governments Will Be Forced Together by Debt Pressure

PITTSBURGH, Pa.—(AP)—Dr. Harold W. Dodds, president of Princeton University, Monday declared the day is approaching when state legislatures will compel consolidation of cities and counties to bring about better state supervision.

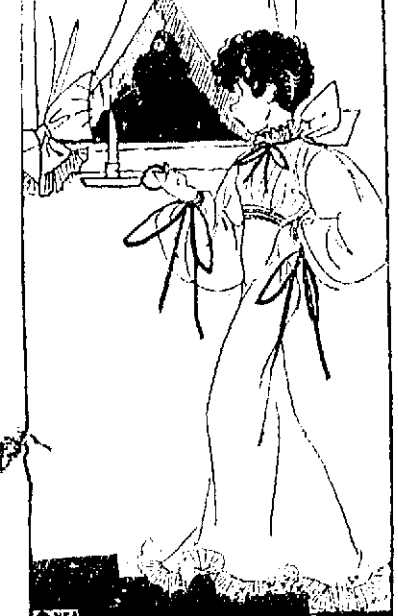

In an address assuming leadership of the National Municipal League, of which he was elected president, Dr. Dodds said:

"The end of the depression will find our cities in deep debt to the state, with the federal government also in possession of both legal and moral claims against them. Cities will be increasingly dependent upon state sources of revenue and he who pays the piper in the long run calls the tune."

He added that the problems of adjustment in this field, political, social and financial, will be difficult in both theory and practice.

"Old fashioned citizens must be prepared to see services which have been hallowed by times as local functions, assumed by the state if not, indeed, by the federal government," Dr. Dodds asserted.

FLAPPER FANNY SAYS:

Grandma didn't smoke, but she'd light up at night anyhow

Cats to Close Season at Nashville

Thanksgiving Day Game Will Begin at 2:30 o'Clock

Little Rock Game Statistics Reveal Remarkably Close Play

SET FOR THURSDAY

Final Light Workout Puts Bobcats in Shape for the Scrappers

The Hope High School football team will be in good condition when the squad goes to Nashville Thursday afternoon for the final game of the season, Coach Foy Hammons announced Tuesday.

The Bobcats came out of the Little Rock game without any serious injuries, the coach said.

The opening kickoff Thursday is slated for 2:30 sharp.

The Bobcats will be sent through light workouts, consisting mostly of signal drills, in preparation for the Nashville contest.

Little Rock Game Statistics
Statistics of the Hope-Little Rock football game as prepared by Mrs. Foy Hammons:

Firstdowns—Hope 10, Little Rock 14. Forward passes—Hope 5 out of 19 for 103 yards. Little Rock 4 out of 10 for 63 yards. Forward passes intercepted by Little Rock, 2 for no gain.

Penalties—Hope 3 for 25 yards. Little Rock 2 for 15 yards.

Yards gained from scrimmage, Hope 112. Little Rock 143. Yards lost from scrimmage, Hope 20, Little Rock 20.

Average on carrying ball from scrimmage—Hope 32 attempts for 3 yards. Little Rock 59 attempts for an average of 2 yards.

Average yards from kickoff—Little Rock 4 for 52 yards. Yards gained in returning kickoffs, Hope 90. Little Rock did not receive any.

Average yards on punts—Hope 11 for 36 yards. Little Rock 11 for 38 yards. Yards gained in returning punts—Hope 66. Little Rock 37.

Total yards gained—Hope 371, Little Rock 243.

Tackles—Spears 22, Moore 21, Holly 20, Kennedy 18, Richards 15, Stone 14, Madison 13, Owens 12, Hobbs 9, Hayne 8, Stroud 7, Anderson 6, Speedy 6, J. Turner 5, Ramsey 4, England 3.

Yards gained by individual players from scrimmage:

Payne—total of 51 yards, lost 19, for an average of 4 yards in eight attempts to carry the ball.

Stroud—total of 8, for an average of 2 yards in four attempts to carry the ball.

Spears—total of 28, for an average of 3 yards in 12 attempts.

Speedy—total of 6, for an average of 2 yards in 3 attempts.

Madison—total of 8 yards, lost 1 yard, for an average of 2 yards in three attempts.

Game 23rd Thursday
NASHVILLE, Ark.—The last game of football in the 1934 season—the annual Thanksgiving game with the Hope Bobcats—will be played on Scrapper field Thursday afternoon, starting promptly at 2:30 according to the Nashville News.

The News continues: The game this year will be of more interest to the fans of this part of the state than it has ever been because of the strong team which Hope has built around Guy Payne, former Scrapper player, who is Hope's quarterback and outstanding player. Payne's attitude of superiority toward his former teammates has created additional interest in the game here. The game is expected to attract a record crowd for a

(Continued on Page Three)

1621-Thanksgiving-1934

THANKSGIVING PRAYER - - - By Helen Welshimer

WE give our thanks that there are crops ingathered, That through the ages the deep-voiced command, That while the earth remains seedtime and harvest Will never fade or perish from the land, Has been fulfilled—that there are crops to garner. But oh, Our Father, we have erred somehow Or why with food for multitudes decaying In sun-warmed fields should there be hungry now?

OURS was the unwise planning—we have wandered Away from simple precepts tried and true. Teach us again old friends, old faiths are better; They served us well—why should we seek the new?

Thou givest life in beauty and abundance. We spoil the pattern, for we seek to weave Too swiftly with the threads that need slow plaiting. We're not satisfied, dear God, to leave

THE harvest to Thy wise and gracious judgment. I We could do better, foolishly, we thought. Now we have looked upon the desolation That we in ignorance stupidly have wrought. So as we come once more into the clearing Where sunlight shines, we bring our praise again That testing time, strange though it was and weary, Has made us gentler women, braver men!

"Kingfish" Taboo, L.S.U. Editors Quit

Reveille Staff Resign When University Officials "Crack Down"

BATON ROUGE, La.—(AP)—Senator Huey P. Long returned Tuesday to the state capital from Arkansas to find the journalistic staff of the Louisiana State University publication, the Reveille, had revolted against his censorship of the paper, and had resigned.

Student Editors Quit
BATON ROUGE, La.—(AP)—Resignation of members of the staff of the Reveille, Louisiana State University student newspaper, was announced Monday night after asserted insubordination of the university that the campus publication should print nothing derogatory to Senator Huey P. Long.

Jesse H. Cutler of Kentwood, La., editor and business manager of the Reveille, announced his resignation and that of staff members of the publication as the paper was going to press because of what he said was individual unwillingness of the student journalists to submit to what he termed proposed "censorship" by a "faculty advisor."

He said the resignations followed a conference with Dr. James M. Smith, university president, and faculty members regarding the "censorship" issue which has been a torrid campus topic since Senator Long was angered two weeks ago by a criticism published in the Reveille of his making Abe Mickal, L. S. U. football star, a "state senator."

Last week Cutler reported that Dean James F. Broussard, then acting president of the university, had promised after a protest, that the "censorship" would be discontinued.

Treasury "Nails" 2 Grafting Clerks

They Are Caught "Settling" Income Tax Cases on the Side

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—Practiced compliance by an unnamed business man offered an inside settlement of a big income tax case for a cash consideration was credited by Secretary Morgenthau Monday with uncovering two Treasury employees, who he as-

Probe of 3 Slain Girls, to 'Frisco

Police Pick Up Clue Linking Pennsylvania With West Coast

CARLEISLE, Pa.—(AP)—Police seeking the identity of three girls found dead in the woods near here, last Saturday studied a cross-continent angle Tuesday on the strength of a story told by Larry Carney, Philadelphia, who says he once lived in San Francisco.

Carney Tuesday identified a photograph of a man found dead in the same vicinity where the girls' bodies were found, as that of Horace Hughes, of San Francisco, who had three children whose ages, he said, correspond with those of the dead girls.

Carney said he saw Hughes in Philadelphia a week ago, and that Hughes told him he had hitch-hiked from California with his intended wife and her three children by a previous marriage.

The San Francisco trail was the clue most intently followed by police.

168 Millions for Standard Dividend

Great Oil Group Distributes 30% More Than in Preceding Year

NEW YORK.—(AP)—Cash dividend payments by the companies of the Standard Oil group for 1934 are estimated at $168,000,000 compared with $128,938,375 in 1933, an increase of $39,061,625, or approximately 30 per cent according to figures compiled by Carl H. Pforzheimer & Co., members of the New York Stock Exchange.

Total disbursements of the group for the fourth quarter of 1934 are estimated at $66,351,092, against $18,382,063 in the third quarter and $12,457,920 in the fourth quarter last year.

The total of cash payments this year was augmented by extra dividends of 25 cents a share by Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, of 50 cents a share by Standard Oil Company of Kentucky and increased payments by the Secony-Vacuum Oil Company and Hembly Oil and Refining Company.

No Star on Thursday, to Observe Holiday

Thanksgiving day, Thursday, November 29, will be observed as a full holiday by The Star, the newspaper suspending publication that day. There will be no Thursday afternoon edition in the city, or Friday morning edition on the mail. Publication will be resumed Friday afternoon on the mail. The Star observes three holidays: Fourth of July, Thanksgiving, and Christmas.

Priest and Bride Slain by Husband

New York Hotel Scene of Quarrel and Double-Shooting

NEW YORK.—The Rev. Joseph J. Leonard, 40, a Catholic priest, and Mrs. Ruth Steinmetz, 17, Hollywood moving picture actress and bride of two weeks, were shot to death Monday in a room occupied by the priest at the Knights of Columbus hotel.

The woman's husband, Joseph L. Steinmetz, 22, of Jewish birth, who has been studying in Los Angeles to become a Presbyterian minister, was captured beside the bodies with an automatic pistol in his hand. He was arrested and charged with the murder of the two.

The priest, pastor of Our Lady of the Rosary chapel and chaplain at Morris Hall, home for the aged at Lawrenceville, N. J., was shot twice through the left chest. One bullet lodged in his heart. Mrs. Steinmetz was shot twice through the left breast and once through the wrist.

Steinmetz, still befuddled, said that he, his bride of 16 days and the priest had met Sunday, dined and drank together in the evening, again in the morning and then lunched together.

After lunch, according to the story given out by Saul Price, assistant district attorney, they had "four or five drinks each." They then returned to the Steinmetz room on the 12th floor with a quart of liquor.

Japanese Turn to France and Italy

Suggest Abandoning of Naval Treaty, Defying U. S. and Britain

TOKYO, Japan.—(AP)—Japan has proposed to France and Italy that they join her in abrogating the Washington naval treaty, it was learned Tuesday from an authoritative source. The French and Italian envoys said they would communicate the proposal to their governments.

MacDonald Delays Action
LONDON, Eng.—(AP)—Prime Minister MacDonald announced in the House of Commons Tuesday that Great Britain will not propose to the United States negotiations for a pact of mutual assistance in the Pacific along the lines of the Locarno treaty.

Is Regarded Likely
LONDON, Eng.—(AP)—Certain naval quarters Monday night suggested that when Japan junks the Washington naval treaty of 1922 a "naval race of technical improvements" may follow, resulting in new types of powerful warships which would surpass Germany's pocket battleships.

The United States' plans, it was indicated, would be made in general cooperation with Great Britain, thereby conforming with the American policy for an accord on general policies, which will be suggested to Great Britain if there is no new naval treaty.

Such an accord would not bind either nation to concerted action on all types of ships, but would eliminate open competition between the two powers and keep both abreast of Japan, if possible, on all technical improvements.

The Japanese have asserted they have plans ready for a surprise type of ship if a naval building race should start. United States delegates do not appear disturbed by this since they believe the United States is in the better position to outpace anyone if necessary.

Conjectures regarding improvements range from bigger battleships and more powerful airplanes carried on extremely speedy and large aircraft-carriers.

Why Actors Die Poor! An interesting article discussing some famous instances will be found in The American Weekly, the magazine distributed with next Sunday's Chicago Herald and Examiner.

(Continued on Page Three)

Regular Army and Police Summoned in Domestic Crisis

Fear Outbreak Between Hitler Storm Troops and the Army

RIOTS IN AUSTRIA

Students Mob Czechoslovakian Legation, But Are Beaten Off

Copyright Associated Press
BERLIN, Germany.—(AP)—The German army and the nation's police forces are operating under a virtual declaration of a state of emergency, reliable sources disclosed Tuesday. All Christmas furloughs for the army and the military police have been suspended.

The drilling of Nazi storm troops has been intensified, it is reported. The domestic situation's significance in relation to the foreign situation is minimized, however.

Fears that the feud between the Reichswehr (regular army) and the Schutz Staff (Hitler's personal army, the "Storm Troops"), might break out openly, was held in some quarters to be chiefly responsible for the emergency measure.

Riots in Austria
VIENNA, Austria.—(AP)—Austrian students Tuesday attacked the Czechoslovakian legation in reprisal for recent anti-German riots at the university of Prague, but were repulsed by police who battered them with swords and clubs.

Vienna was thrown into fresh turmoil by the demonstrations. The students trained bricks and stones on newspaper offices, smashing almost every window and wrecking the plants; and then they marched to the legation, where they were beaten off by the police.

Markets Protest Blue Law Action

"Can Buy Beer But Not Meat on Sabbath," Reese Tells Star

Several meat market operators in Hope were irritated Tuesday after being halted in their business by Monday and fined for "Sabbath breaking."

W. O. Reese told The Star: "You can buy all the beer you want, but if you sell a pound of meat on Sunday the cops get you."

Some of the operators protested on the grounds that they were ordered to close when nothing was done about the "beer joints."

Although the charge only read "Sabbath breaking," the offense against W. O. Reese, D. M. Harris, R. L. Lane, Earl Montgomery, M. M. Cornelius and Anton McKinley, the latter a negro, was for operating a meat market on Sunday. The verdicts were appealed.

It Was Twins, So the Husband Fled

And Chicago Woman Says That's the Last She Has Seen of Him

CHICAGO.—(AP)—The nurse walked into the waiting room and corrected her earlier report to Leo Lopatka, a milk man.

"Two of them," she said, "both boys—twins."

And that was the last either the nurse or Mrs. Lopatka saw of Leo. The wife told Judge Desart Monday. The judge granted Mrs. Lopatka a divorce.

Markets Hope Cotton Exchange

New York Cotton
Open	High	Low	Close
Dec. 12.50	12.51	12.44	12.51-52
Jan. 12.59	12.59	12.50	12.59
New Orleans Cotton
Open	High	Low	Close
Dec. 12.52	12.52	12.46	12.52
Jan. 12.59	12.62	12.54	12.60
Chicago Grain
Open	High	Low	Close
Wheat—Dec. 98½	99½	98¼	99½
Oats —Dec. 51½	52¼	51½	52¼
Closing Stock Quotations
American Can	105
A. T. & T.	108¼
Anacosta	11
Chrysler	38½
General Motors	32
Secony Vacuum	14½
U. S. Steel	37½
Standard Oil of N. J.	43
American Smelter	36½
Atchison	55½

Hope Star

O Justice, Deliver Thy Herald From False Reports!

Published every week-day afternoon by Star Publishing Co., Inc.
(C. E. Palmer & Alex. H. Washburn), at The Star building, 212-214 South
Walnut street, Hope, Arkansas.

C. E. PALMER, President
ALEX. H. WASHBURN, Editor and Publisher

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Hope, Arkansas
Under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Definition: "The newspaper is an institution developed by modern civilization to present the news of the day, to foster commerce and industry, through widely circulated advertisements, and to furnish that check upon government which no constitution has ever been able to provide."—Col. R. R. McCormick.

Subscription Rate (Always Payable in Advance): By city carrier, per week, 10c; by mail, $2.75; one year, $25.00. By mail in Hempstead, Nevada, Howard, Miller and Lafayette counties, $3.50 per year; elsewhere $5.00.

Member of The Associated Press: The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

National Advertising Representatives: Arkansas Dailies, Inc., Memphis, Tenn.; Strick Bldg., New York City, Graybar Bldg., Chicago, Ill., 75 E. Wacker, Drive, Detroit, Mich., 1338 Woodward Ave., St. Louis, Mo., Star Bldg.

Charges on Tributes, Etc.: Charges will be made for all tributes, cards of thanks, resolutions, or memorials, concerning the departed. Commercial newspapers hold to this policy in the news columns to protect their readers from a deluge of space-taking memorials. The Star disclaims responsibility for the safe-keeping or return of any unsolicited manuscripts.

Worst Is Over for Us

By Bruce Catton

EVERY Thanksgiving Day, it is the custom for us to turn our minds back to the Pilgrim Fathers. We retell the old story of that gallant little band on the bleak shores of Massachusetts Bay, conjure up a mental picture of that primitive feast table, where sober-faced men in buckled shoes and tall black hats sat down with painted Indians—and then we turn to our own turkey and mince pie and forget all about it.

What we might very profitably notice is the fact that our present situation is remarkably like that of the men who invented Thanksgiving.

It is like it in this respect: We have just come through a very trying and nerve-tendering experience, we have come through it in rather better shape than we expected to, and we are now looking forward to a time in which we can go ahead with the old job of making this broad land a better place for people to live.

That was the situation of the early colonists. They had had a very hard time indeed, getting started. The winter had been cruel. Many people had died—and so hostile was the land that the colonists tried to conceal the graves, so that the Indians would not know how weak the settlement had become.

There had been hunger and privation to contend with. But somehow they had managed to live through it, the summer had been kinder, and by late autumn the people were able to look to the future with the confidence of those who realized that the worst is over.

And so, when you stop to think about it, are we. We have touched the bottom and now we are on our way up.

Our country isn't going to fall apart, after all, we aren't going to have to sacrifice our traditions of freedom and democracy to survive; we aren't going to be torn asunder by violent clashes between those who have and those who have not.

We can celebrate our Thanksgiving in the old-time spirit, this year. The worst is behind us. We have great reason for setting aside a day to return thanks to Divine Providence.

From now on, the path will be smoother and the sky will be brighter. And if, like the Pilgrims, we can add to our devout gratitude a strong determination to continue to be brave and patient and enduring, we can face whatever may be ahead of us without the slightest fear.

Stanford Chosen for "Rose Bowl"

Alabama, Colgate, Pitt or L. S. U. May Be Opponent

PASADENA, Calif.—(P)—Stanford was selected Monday to represent the West in the Rose Bowl on New Year's Day. Standout aggregation of the Pacific coast, the Indian's record was unmarred except for an early season 7-1 tie with Santa Clara. The Pacific Coast Conference apparently found little trouble in nominating Stanford for the second successive year. But no such clarity of thought exists in regard to the opponent.

Alabama, three times a Rose Bowl visitor, appears to have rallied the strongest support locally, but there also is a quarter of strong Eastern sentiment for Colgate, Columbia, Temple, and Pitt, to say nothing of Louisiana State twice tied, but with an ardent supporter in its Kingfish-senator-patron, Huey Long.

Alabama and Minnesota are the only major gridiron teams of the season without defeats or ties and eliminating the "Big Ten" champions would seem to direct the choice to the South-erners.

Columbia last New Year's defeated Stanford in the rain 7-0. The Indians would like a chance to erase that memory. Columbia was beaten this year only by Navy, but last year it was chosen despite a reverse at the hands of Princeton.

Colgate has lost to Ohio State's strong eleven, 10-7. It is coached by Andy Kerr, who once coached at Stanford to pave the way for Glenn (Pop) Warner, and his remark of several years ago when Colgate was passed up as a Rose Bowl team for Pittsburgh is still bandied about on the Pacific coast. At that time Kerr said: "Unbeaten, untied, unscored on, and uninvited."

Temple has only a 6-to-6 tie with Indiana against it, but a strong season on bidding the Philadelphia school is that it was Temple that Warner went when he left Stanford two years ago.

Pittsburgh's only reverse was at the hands of Minnesota, 13-7, but there is a distinct bond with Stanford in that Jack Sutherland, Pitt coach, played side by side with Claude (Tiny) Thornhill, Stanford coach, when both were linemen at Pittsburgh.

Louisiana State's 9-to-9 tie with Rice, and 14-to-14 deadlock with Southern Methodist University have served to minimize the chances of the Southern outfit.

Tide's Record in West
A glance at the records shows Ala-

Yerger to Meet North Little Rock

Capital City Negroes on Local Field at 2 p. m. Thursday

Yerger High School football team will play its last game of the season here Thursday afternoon against a negro team of North Little Rock.

The game will start at 2 p. m. on Yerger field.

The Hope team holds victories over Pine Bluff, Texarkana, Ark., and Nashville. The Tigers fought a scoreless tie last week against a Hot Springs eleven.

The Hope squad has lost only to Little Rock and Texarkana, Texas. Coach Harris said that the North Little Rock team was rated among the top-notchers, and that he expected a close battle on Turkey day.

bama has performed better in the Rose Bowl than any other invader, defeating Washington, 20 to 19, in 1926, tying Stanford 7 to 7 in 1927, and crushing Washington State 24 to 0, in 1931.

Stanford in the Rose Bowl lost to Notre Dame with its "Four Horsemen," 27 to 10, in 1925, defeated Pittsburgh 7 to 6 in 1928, and lost to Columbia last year.

Stanford this year won undisputed claim to the Pacific Coast Conference title, and bowled over Oregon State, Northwestern, Southern California, U. C. L. A., Washington, and California. Alabama, scoring more than 250 points to 32 for its opponents, has downed Tennessee, Georgia, Kentucky, and Georgia Tech, and this Thursday must face Vanderbilt. It is probable that Stanford will not make its choice until after Thanksgiving Day.

Just an Apprentice
The Quack was selling an elixir which he declared would make men live to a great age.

"Look at me," he shouted. "Hale and hearty, I'm over 300 years old."

"Is he really as old as that?" asked a listener of the youthful assistant.

"I can't say," replied the assistant. "I've only worked for him for 100 years."—The By-stander (London).

Learning to Shoot
Drill Instructor—"Now take this rifle, and find out how to use it."
Recruit—"Tell me one thing. It is true that the harder I pull the trigger, the further the bullet will go?"—U. S. S. New York Knickerbocker.

Lovable

MARY RAYMOND
© 1934 NEA SERVICE, INC.

ANN HOLISTER, pretty and 20, sells the family antiques to pay for her father, now dead. On the day of the sale, a young man stopped by motor trouble, came to her home to telephone. After he leaves Ann finds a note pinned to the door and in its place a note signed "P. K." and 50c.

Ann gets work as a librarian and becomes friendly with SARAH KENT, also employed at the library. She meets TOMMY MURKIN, commercial artist, and is attracted by him, though Sarah warns her that Tommy is a hunk and irresponsible.

Now go on with the story

CHAPTER V

"NOW," Ann thought, "I'm in for a lecture." She said, as the gray roadster drew alongside. "You don't have to tell me that was dumb driving. I know it."

And then she stepped in amazement.

It couldn't be, Ann told herself. And yet it certainly was the same young man who had stopped at her home in Georgia while his automobile tire was being changed.

"I hope your mother liked the vase," Ann said.

The young man leaped from his car and came forward, extending his hand. "You!" he said. "Where did you come from? First I spring up on your doorstep and then you—"

"Almost run over you," Ann laughed. Suddenly she remembered she had a grievance.

"It wasn't nice of you to leave more than the vase was worth. I wasn't accepting charity," she said.

"I'm sorry if I appeared officious. I paid what I thought it was worth. It was worth as much as that, wasn't it?"

"At one time," Ann conceded, doubtfully.

"What are you doing now—here?" he asked.

Remembering her errand, her failure, Ann said: "I'm on my way to report a failure to the head of the library where I work."

As he looked mystified, she launched into an explanation; warning to her subject as she saw the interested light in the young man's eyes.

"But of course," she concluded, "Mr. Griffin won't really blame me. He wouldn't have sent me, probably, if he had known how terrible that old man is."

"So you think he's terrible?"

"I know he is," said Ann indignantly. "Letting me come 25 miles and then refusing to see me."

"He probably wouldn't have seen you if you had come 100," the young man said. "Besides, you must remember, he didn't let you come. He didn't know anything about it."

ANN said, a little vexed, "You wouldn't be taking his side if you knew how ill-mannered he is."

"I'm really sorry you had the trip for nothing. It happens I'm going to see him now. Suppose you try again, with me."

"Thank you, but I think not. He practically put me out. I don't want to discourage you but if I were you I'd wait another day."

"So you work at the city library?"

"Yes."

"I'm surprised." "Don't I look like a librarian?" His eyes twinkled. "You look like—well, like girls should look all the time."

"Sweet of you," smiled Ann, "but I have my moments of reservation to type." She was starting the roadster.

"Don't worry too much," he said. "They'll probably be able to work things out at the library."

"Goodby. I hope you'll have better luck than I had," Ann said.

The shining little roadster tore back at a rapid rate. In less than an hour Ann was entering the library.

Sarah looked up as Ann came in. "It was wonderful!" she exclaimed. "Wonderful?"

"I don't see how you did it—yet I was sure you would."

"I don't know what you are talking about."

"Ann, Mr. Kendall's grandson phoned a few minutes ago and said everything was arranged. We can have the space for the branch—and rent free. He said he had decided it would be a fine thing for the employees."

"Sarah! I didn't even see him!"

"Well, you did something. You must have seen somebody."

"Not a soul except the servant, and on the way back—Sarah, who did you say phoned?"

"Peter Kendall."

Ann said slowly, wondering, "P. K."

"What did you say?"

"Nothing. What is the grandson like?"

Sarah began an elaborate description. Peter Kendall had gray eyes with a hint of humor in them, a nicely chiseled nose, a strong mouth with a hint of obstinacy about the chin.

"His grandfather adores him," they say," Sarah continued. "After he was graduated at Harvard he won honors at the Beaux Arts in architecture, and then walked off with first honors in a junior engineering competition."

Ann said, in a queer voice, "Part of the description seems to fit. Oh, Sarah, if you knew what awful things I said about Mr. Kendall to his grandson!"

TOMMY wanted to celebrate what he termed Ann's entry into "polite society."

"So you've been hobnobbing with millionaires," he said. "Twisting them around your little finger. Well, you are making progress."

"Anyway, Tony, rich people are people. Well, at least I know one nice rich man."

"No, they are not. They are a bunch of snobs." He asked after a moment. "Who is the nice man?"

"Peter Kendall."

"Look here, Ann. If he tries any funny business—"

"There's no reason for you to get hot and bothered," Ann laughed. "Besides, Sarah told me his weakness is a beautiful blond named Valeria Bennett."

"I believe I've heard that," Tony said, pleasantly enough now. Early that evening Ann and

Tony were part of a milling crowd at the amusement park. It was fun to cling to Tony in "the Crazy House"; to become almost frightenedly wandering about the maze; romantic to drift with him in the little gondola at the "One Night in Venice" concession.

And then the chutes. Taking their places, ready for the long, breathless dash to the water below. The spill, and Ann coming up to be caught in Tony's arms. And then his wet face against her own, as he kissed her.

"For goodness sake! Can't you wait until we're out of the water?" Ann said, trying to sound sophisticated and nonchalant. But she knew something had happened. That kiss had meant that she was Tony's girl now. The careless companionship was ended.

CROSSING the river on the little chugging boat, Tony's light manner vanished. There was a gentleness in his manner that was new to him.

He was, he said, as though the words held significance, going after a very neat contract. If he got it he'd be pretty well fixed during the next year. He'd always thought a man should be sure of his financial status before settling down—

"Yes," Ann agreed, her voice not as steady as it had been.

There was a lump in Ann's throat. She was falling in love. She was listening to Tony's deep, musical voice and seeing pictures. Seeing herself moving about a neat little kitchen, wearing a blue-checked apron.

At the door Ann firmly told him good night. They both must realize that these late hours would militate against efficiency.

"That's right, too," Tony agreed soberly. "Guess we'll have to cut out some of our social life and buckle down."

Thinking of social life made Tony's brows draw together again, darkly. "Ann, if Peter Kendall comes to the library and tries to get fresh, you know what to say to him."

"Only one man would ever come to the library and get fresh," Ann teased.

"Well, if he had the nerve, you can put him straight about one thing."

"About what?" her soft voice urged him on.

"About you being my girl."

"All right."

"No fooling, Ann."

"No fooling, Tony."

He was gone then, Ann, humming a little tune, moved about the small living room. She was engaged—well, practically, to Tony. He had not asked her to marry him, but he would.

Ann rubbed cold cream on her face and stared at her reflection in the glass. Her eyes were shining and her skin rosy and warm to the touch. It was funny about being in love. There had been a number of romances—light, inconsequential romances. Lots of them. They had left nothing but pleasant memories. Not even little scars.

It was different really falling in love, being stirred deeply. "I'm afraid your gay girlhood is almost over," Ann told the girl in the mirror.

(To Be Continued)

Bids Received on 5 State Highways

Largest Is for Last 3 Miles of Little Rock-Memphis Route, No. 70

LITTLE ROCK.—(P)—Bids were received Tuesday by the State Highway Commission on five projects involving an aggregate expenditure of about $125,000.

The largest called for the paving of a three-mile stretch on highway No. 70 in St. Francis county, which would complete the hard-surfacing of the Little Rock-Memphis highway.

Dr. Bass in New Fight for Release

Missourian Contents Crime Occurred Outside of Arkansas

FINE BLUFF, Ark.—(P)—Dr. Andrew J. Bass, once prominent Columbia (Mo.) dentist, serving a life term in the Arkansas penitentiary for the 1930 slaying of William Robert Pearson, Columbia business man, Tuesday asked the local circuit court to free him on the ground that Pearson was slain in Missouri and not in Arkansas.

The Service Stations Listed Below Will Close at 12 o'clock noon

Thanksgiving Day

(Thursday, November 29)

Have your car serviced early so that you will be sure of having an ample supply of gasoline and oil for the holiday.

700 Service Station
Bundy Service Station
Sutton and Hale
City Service Station
Broadway Service Station
Esso Service Station
Joe C. Coleman

Lion Oil Sales Co. No. 134
Loreco Service Station
J. L. Anderson
823 Service Station
Division Street Service Station
Boyet and McKee
P. A. Lewis
536 Service Station

(All Night Stations Will Re-Open at 8 p. m.)

Recovery Budget May Be Curtailed

Direct Relief to Be Continued, But Budget Will Be Balanced

WARM SPRINGS, Ga.—(P)—President Roosevelt outlined legislative plans Monday with senate leaders calling for a tapering off in government expenditures and a ban against further increases in taxes.

Senator Robinson of Arkansas, floor pilot, and Senator Harrison of Mississippi, finance chairman, in a four-hour talk at the "Little White House" also agreed that relief necessary to prevent starvation must go along.

The bonus payment issue was not discussed in detail and Senator Robinson who reported "strong sentiment" for it said there was "nothing to indicate any plans for financing the proposed bonus payments."

Senator Robinson remained over at the president's request for a further conference Tuesday. Senator Harrison hastened on to Washington where he hopes to have the Finance Committee assemble early to consider an unemployment insurance bill still to be drafted.

Rexford C. Tugwell, undersecretary of agriculture and intimate of the president, departed with Harrison. "I believe," Senator Robinson told newspapermen, "that expenditures for normal government purposes will be kept well within income. It is not possible yet to decide what further arrangements may be necessary respecting further employment relief."

This was regarded as indicating a determination by the president to continue extraordinary expenditures for stimulating employment and assuring adequate relief although Senator Robinson did not discuss this phase.

"I am hopeful," Robinson said, "that the present source of revenue will be adequate for the normal budget and that substantial change will not be made in existing levies. Temporary taxes probably will have to be continued. All this subject to future contingencies."

"We are discussing general conditions that prevail and also considering some measures relating to important subjects. There is no detail-

Little Rock Votes on City Manager

Capital City Goes to Polls Tuesday on Proposed Change

LITTLE ROCK.—Little Rock voters will go to the polls Tuesday to cast ballots "For Home Rule" or "Against Home Rule."

If they vote for Home Rule they will vote to authorize a Charter Committee to prepare a charter for the operation of the city government under a commission-city manager plan, the charter to be submitted to the people for approval or rejection at a second special election.

If they vote against Home Rule they will vote in favor of retaining the present mayor-aldermanic form of government and against giving the electors an opportunity to accept or reject a proposed charter.

Seven members of a Charter Committee are to be elected Tuesday also. The names of seven nominees are printed on the ballots, but voters may scratch any of these and write in other names.

Voters who are against Home Rule are not denied a voice in selecting the Charter Committee. They may vote against the measure and at the same time vote for any one they choose for membership on the committee.

"Such a Good Laxative," Says Nurse
Writing from her home in Festus, Mo., Mrs. Anna LaPlante says: "I am a practical nurse and I recommend to some of my patients that they take Black-Draught, for it is such a good laxative. I took it for constipation, headache and a dull feeling that I had so much. A few doses of Black-Draught—and I felt just fine."

Having used it that Theodore's Black-Draught is a good, purely vegetable laxative, millions of packages of it are sold every year.

Use only one level teaspoonful to a cup of flour for most recipes.

Efficient and Economical
KC
BAKING POWDER
Same price today as 44 years ago
25 ounces for 25c
Manufactured by Baking Powder Specialties Co. Nothing But Baking Powder.
Millions of Pounds Have Been Used by Our Government.

WARD & SON
The Leading Druggists
"We've Got It"
Phone 62 We Deliver

MOBILIZE FOR WINTER!

Guard against the hazards of cold weather driving

YOU'LL never see this man stalled in his garage some fine winter morning. You won't find him paying for motor repairs, run-down batteries, frozen radiators and other penalties of winter neglect.

With a Magnolia Winter-Proof Job you are protected against sudden changes in temperature. Your motor will start instantly on the coldest mornings. Gears will shift easily. Driving will be a pleasure instead of a worrisome task.

Check the seven important points covered in Magnolia Winter-Proof Service. You need every one of them for safe, economical driving.

Remember . . . you can MOBILIZE only at

MAGNOLIA STATIONS AND DEALERS

"Stay with Magnolia and you stay ahead"

ASK HERE FOR MAGNOLIA
MAGNOLIA
MAGNOLIA STATIONS AND DEALERS

8-WP-39

Herman McMillen spent Sunday afternoon with Clent Dougherty.

666 COLD and FEVER
Liquid-Tablets Headaches
Salve-Nose Drops in 30 minutes

Pal's Curb Market
Pumpkins
Tomatoes, Apples, Lettuce and Celery
Spiced and properly prepared will complete a Thanksgiving Dinner.
Ernest Dick
Special
Thanksgiving Dinner
11 a. m. to 3 p. m.
Plenty of Time to Enjoy a Real Thanksgiving Feast and then drive to the Football Games.
It's Safe to Be Hungry at the
Checkered Cafe
35c

Co-Ed's Lady of Fashion

Plenty of Time to Enjoy a Real Thanksgiving Feast and then drive to the Football Games.

It's Safe to Be Hungry at the Checkered Cafe

35c

Have your car serviced early so that you will be sure of having an ample supply of gasoline and oil for the holiday.

700 Service Station
Bundy Service Station
Sutton and Hale
City Service Station
Broadway Service Station
Esso Service Station
Joe C. Coleman

Lion Oil Sales Co. No. 134
Loreco Service Station
J. L. Anderson
823 Service Station
Division Street Service Station
Boyet and McKee
P. A. Lewis
536 Service Station

(All Night Stations Will Re-Open at 8 p. m.)

Winter Proof? OKAY! It saved me a lot of grief last year

ASK HERE FOR MAGNOLIA
MAGNOLIA
MAGNOLIA STATIONS AND DEALERS

8-WP-39

Society

Mrs. Sid Henry Telephone 321

As Thanksgiving Draws Near—

Thanksgivings come — Thanksgivings go —
Leaving their wistful afterglow,
(As all the hearts in exile know)
A large and pensive company,
Who think back on the past, are we,
(Wearing our sprig of rosemary,
Some of us take untrodden ways
To find our lovely yesterdays —
Wrapped round with lavender and haze.)
Some seek a well-loved face, a smile,
In memory kept a long, long while,
(For thoughts fly far a-miles a mile,
There is an old house, that for me
Means home and love, and family —
(It matters not where I may be.)
But for a lot of us, the same road
Wends —
Close up the gaps, sit closer, friends!
Thanksgiving comes — Thanksgiving ends. — Selected.

friends will be glad to know that Mr. Haynes' condition is very much better, and he hopes to return home in about two weeks or earlier.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Meek and baby Carolyn, of Bradley and Mrs. Taylor Stuart of Hot Springs were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. K. G. McRae.

The Bible Study class of First Methodist church held their regular monthly meeting Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Don Smith on South Elm street with a splendid attendance. Mrs. Ralph Routon conducted a very instructive study on the prophets of the Old Bible. The business meeting was in charge of the leader, Mrs. D. B. Thompson. The next meeting will be in charge of the next leader, Mrs. J. A. Henry.

Mrs. O. A. Graves was a Monday visitor in Hot Springs. Mrs. S. G. Norton spent Monday in Little Rock.

A wedding that will be of interest to the many friends of the bridegroom in this city is that of Miss Pauline Lee formerly of Paris, Ark., later of Austin, Texas, and James Travis Bowden Jr., only son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Bowden of this city. The marriage was solemnized on Sunday, November 11, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George D. Lee in Austin, Texas. The bride is a graduate of the Paris, Ark., High School and the bridegroom is a graduate of Hope High School and Ouachita college. He was business manager of the Hope Hi Bohemian and editor of the Ouachita Signal. Mr. and Mrs. Bowden are at home at 310 West Avenue G, in this city. Mr. Bowden is producer of the Community Ice & Produce Company.

Mrs. Charles Briant has as house guests, her daughter, Mrs. P. B. Corum and Mr. Corum of Encampment, Wyo.

Mrs. W. R. Anderson has returned from a summer spent with friends and relatives in Palmyra, Mo.

The annual Rotary Banquet for the ladies was held Monday evening at Hotel Barlow, in the private dining room, which was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and chrysanthemums and dahlias. Covers were laid for fifty guests including Mr. and Mrs. Hervey Bemis of Prescott and Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Green of Galatin, Tenn., as out of town guests. Albert Graves presided over the tempting six course turkey dinner. The program included a number of clever games and stunts and several handsome prizes were awarded.

Miss Rebecca Norton of Little Rock spent the week end with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Green of Galatin, Tenn., are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Franklin.

Mrs. Paul E. Hausman of Lehigh, Pa., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Schooley. Mrs. Hausman will be remembered as Miss Marybelle Schooley.

Play to Be Given at Laneburg Thursday

"Crazy to Reduce," is the title of a play to be presented Thursday night in the auditorium of Laneburg High School.

Although the play will be presented at Laneburg, the P. T. A. organization of Central High School is sponsoring the event. A small admission will be charged.

McCaskey Singing Community singing will be held at McCaskey Friday night, November 30, and every Friday night thereafter, with everyone invited to bring song-books.

Too Late to Classify

WANTED TO BUY — Jersey Cow with new calf. Must be good for cash. Phone 39. Mrs. B. C. Lewis, 27-31c

CARNIVAL
SPRING HILL SCHOOL
Wednesday Night, November 28
Benefit Library and Athletic Fund.
BE THERE.

SAENGER
TONITE (Tues) ONLY

Death on the Diamond with ROBERT YOUNG
and MADEIRA EVANS
Cartoon and Comedy

WED-NITE ONLY

—an extra BIG—

"BANK NITE"

—On the Screen—

"STRANGE WIVES"

A musical short, "Apples to You"

Preview 11 p.m. Fri-Nite

—of a picture with the biggest "kick" you've ever had!

FRANCIS LEDERER
Pursuit of Happiness

JOHN S. GIBSON

JOHN S. GIBSON

JOHN S. GIBSON

JOHN S. GIBSON

JOHN S. GIBSON

JOHN S. GIBSON

Woodford Trial Is Begun by U. S.

Ex-Disbursing Officer De-fended by DuVal L. Purkins, Kinsman

LITTLE ROCK.—Trial of Lieut. Col. Edward Woodford of Little Rock, former United States property and disbursing officer for the Arkansas National Guard, on charges of embezzling funds and causing false claims to be presented, began in federal court before Federal Judge Andrew Miller of Fargo, N. D., Monday with selection of a jury, opening statements by government and defense lawyers and testimony of four witnesses called by the government.

United States Attorney Fred A. Isgrig reviewed for the jury each of the eight counts contained in an indictment returned May 1, charging embezzlement and presentation of false claims by Colonel Woodford between February 28, 1933, and November 22, 1933.

The first count of the indictment charges that Colonel Woodford converted to his own use July 9, 1931, the sum of $3,300 which the state had advanced to pay freight on government supplies.

The second, third and fourth counts deal with the alleged fraudulent handling on May 4 and 5, 1931 of a claim for $480 presented by Jennings Motors, Little Rock automobile firm.

The fifth count charges that on May 21, 1931, Woodford caused presentation of false claim for $228.88 by the Finley-Turner Tire and Service Company of Little Rock.

In the sixth and seventh counts he is charged with converting to his own use on July 22, 1931, and August 13, 1931, checks for $210.12 and $606.12 issued on the treasurer of the United States by A. H. Brown, finance officer of the United States Army.

The eighth count charges him with converting to his own use $222.80 paid to him in November, 1931, as disbursing officer for sale of gasoline at Camp Pike.

In the opening statement for the defense, DuVal L. Purkins, who is Woodford's brother-in-law, denied that Woodford had served as an officer of the United States, except in the capacity of agent for the Arkansas National Guard, and maintained that the creation of the office of property and disbursing officer by the General Assembly of the State of Arkansas in Act 85 of 1925 and the subsequent appointment of Woodford to that office by the governor of Arkansas rendered him a representative of the State of Arkansas in his official capacity.

Mr. Purkins said the larger portion of Woodford's salary is paid by the state, and that he acted as an agent of the federal government in handling funds allotted to the state. He also said that Woodford acted under the orders of the adjutant general of the Arkansas National Guard as his superior officer. Mr. Purkins offered explanations of the transactions, and said that Woodford repeatedly had offered to explain the transactions under investigation by federal auditors but had not been given an opportunity to do so.

THANKSGIVING DAY

(Continued from Page One)

football game in Nashville, and will no doubt be the outstanding game of the year on the local field.

The Hope Robbers are being given a thorough working-over this week by Coach Foy Hammons, and may be expected to be in the pink of condition when they meet the Scrappers.

The Scrappers will also be in fine condition for the game, and Coach Lester Bradley will give them several training this week to make them do their best.

The dope on the two teams for the season gives Hope a little edge on Nashville, and it is the boast of many of Hope's fans that they will get revenge for the defeats of the past five years.

The Nashville and Hope game is always one of the outstanding games of this section of the state, and the rivalry, while friendly, is always very keen. An especial effort will be made to keep Nashville fans off the Hope side of the field, and every courtesy will be shown the visitors possible. It is to be hoped that all will stay on their own side of the field and refrain from making remarks to the visitors which might sound discourteous to them.

The Hope fans are fine sports and deserve the best treatment which can be afforded them. If their team is the best, more power to them. If the Scrappers get the upper hand, let's take our victory as sportsmen.

PRIEST AND BRIDE

(Continued from Page One)

to the priest the night before.

He staggered down to the room, Price said, and rapped on the door. He was admitted and snatched the automatic out of the priest's coat.

"I don't like the looks of things," he shouted before shooting, according to Price.

Steinmetz, originally from Bucharest, had attended high school in Brooklyn, where his mother, Bertha, and a sister, Regina, live. He was converted to Christianity and went to California two and a half years ago to study for the ministry.
Obscurity surrounding the shooting grew deeper when Joseph Collins, bellboy, said he was called to the priest's room about 10:30 a. m., and found Steinmetz crouched down by the door, with his ear to the keyhole. He told this to Michael O'Malley, the hotel's assistant manager, who started upstairs. O'Malley said the shooting occurred before he reached the room. Assistant District Attorney Price said the priest had met the young bride six months ago.

TREASURY "NAILS"

(Continued from Page One)

series were "selling out" the government.

The case was for "several hundred thousand dollars" but the two internal revenue workers, who Morgenstau said were "right at the point where these cases are settled one way or the other" were said to have handled tax controversies amounting into many millions during their term of service.

Both, now dismissed, face grand jury action for what Morgenstau described as "defrauding the government." The Treasury head said no other employees were under suspicion, promising that a New York firm of accountants, alleged to have dealt with the two men, would be banned from Treasury practice.

The secretary also said that the Treasury had rejected approaches of attorneys seeking a settlement of the income tax fraud charges against "Dutch" Schultz, New York beer gangster.

"We won't settle gangster cases," Morgenstau said.

"When does the next train leave for Chicago?" she asked.

"At 2:50, madam," replied the station agent.

"Take it 2:48 and I'll take it," she said absentmindedly.

Home Clubs

Bodecaw.
Bodecaw Women's club met November 7 in the home of Mrs. Edgall Downs with 21 members and one new member present.
Miss Heath was unable to attend but her assistant, Miss Rhodes was present.
After roll call we elected the following officers for another year: Mrs. Roy May, president; Mrs. Edgar Downs, vice-president; Mrs. Arthur Caudle, secretary, and Mrs. Peary McCargo, assistant secretary, and Mrs. Will Munn, reporter.

Our demonstration was on making Christmas toys and following this our hostess served delicious watermelon. The club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Chester Whitten the first Wednesday in December.

A PRINTZESS COAT

... assures quality and chic at a very low cost.
Come in and let us show you our stock.

Ladies Specialty Shop

"Exclusive But Not Expensive"

"For Thanksgiving"

Gorgeous mums on display at the Reece Floral Farm.

DRIVE OUT.
Phone 1604-F-3

Minding your own business is a good way to keep your name off the scandal-mongers' tongues.

Hat Sale
THE GIFT SHOP
Phone 252
Front Street

ROY ANDERSON & CO
COMPLETE INSURANCE SERVICE
PHONE 610 HOPE, ARK.

Get the Best

When you have a prescription to be filled, bring it to us and know that you are getting "Just What the Prescription calls for." We have filled over 230,000 prescriptions.

We Give Eagle Stamps
John P. Cox Drug Co.
Phone 84 We Deliver

NITE LIFE
... finds you gay in this glamorous Brownbilt slipper!
$3.95
A charming T-Strap of hintable White Faille and Silver Kid.
HITT'S
Brownbilt Shoe Store
Hope, Ark.

SPECIAL PRICES for Last Minute THANKSGIVING SHOPPERS

GRAPES	EMPEROR—LB.	10c	APPLES	Arkansas Black—Dozen	25c
ORANGES	Small Red Ball—Doz.	20c	PUMPKINS	Large Fancy	10c, 15c
TURNIPS	PECK	30c	CRANBERRIES	QUART	20c

WE GIVE THANKS—
For the splendid patronage you have given our new store since its opening. It is gratifying to know that the people of Hope realize and appreciate the fine quality and fair prices which we are ever striving to give.

MIDDLEBROOKS
NEW GROCERY
Prompt Delivery.
Phone 607

Oxford Grey
Felt Hats
For Men
$2.98

Oxford Grey
Top Coats
50-in. long
$14.75

For Thanksgiving
60 Men's SUITS
Go On Sale Wednesday Morning 8 A. M.
Oxford Grey—Single—Double Breasted
Suits—22 inch Bottoms. Your Chance to SAVE! HURRY!
$13⁸⁸
Sizes 34 to 44
Alterations Free
J.C. PENNEY CO.
Where a Nation Shops and Saves.

Men's Black Calf
Oxfords
Styled to Please
$3.98 pr.

Men's Dress
SHIRTS
Pre-shrunk
Fast Color
98c

NOTICE!
The following DRUG STORES will close at noon on Thanksgiving, Thursday, November 29, and will remain closed until the following morning.

BRIANT'S	JOHN P. COX
CRESCENT	WARD & SON
JOHN S. GIBSON

AE
SC

It's coming!
Something new!
Something exciting!
It achieves a new "high" in quality!
It establishes new standards of efficiency!
It's for those who want the accepted best... even though they have to pay a bit more for it!
Watch for further details tomorrow!

American Educator

HORIZONTAL

1. Who is the prominent educator in the picture?

13. Edge of a roof.

14. Silkworm.

15. Warren.

16. Long metal tubes.

17. Sloth.

18. To crawl.

19. To sully.

20. Pope's scarf.

21. To rub out.

22. High body temperature.

23. Large rooms.

24. Opposite of odd.

25. Follower of yoga philosophy.

26. Deliverers.

27. Relieved.

28. Gash.

29. Portion.

30. That which radiates.

ANSWERS TO PREVIOUS PUZZLE

1. M. J. C. (M. J. C. is the prominent educator in the picture.)

13. E. (Edge of a roof.)

14. B. (Silkworm.)

15. W. (Warren.)

16. L. (Long metal tubes.)

17. S. (Sloth.)

18. C. (To crawl.)

19. S. (To sully.)

20. P. (Pope's scarf.)

21. R. (To rub out.)

22. H. (High body temperature.)

23. R. (Large rooms.)

24. O. (Opposite of odd.)

25. F. (Follower of yoga philosophy.)

26. D. (Deliverers.)

27. R. (Relieved.)

28. G. (Gash.)

29. P. (Portion.)

30. R. (That which radiates.)

VERTICAL

2. Rumanian.

10. To make a mistake.

11. To blind.

12. Poem.

13. She was a — in mathematics.

14. And is now — of her alma mater.

15. Riotous feast.

16. Out grass.

17. Loans.

18. Person forced to pay a capitation tax.

19. Genius of the herding family.

20. Shrewder.

21. Tomb of a saint.

22. Fortune.

23. Face of a clock.

24. Small island.

25. Wine vessels.

26. Little devil.

27. There's a —.

28. In what way.

29. Unprofessional.

30. Type standard.

31. Scarlet.

CHILDRENS LAXATIVE

Best If Chewed

Because they CHEW Feen-a-mint, the laxative is mixed with helpful saline juices like food and goes into the system gradually. Thus there is no mass of laxative to irritate the stomach and upset its delicate balance. The more natural action makes Feen-a-mint ideally suited for children and they enjoy it like their favorite gum. Doctors prescribe the scientific laxative in non-habit forming Feen-a-mint. It is for pleasant correction without upset to diet, appetite. Delicious. Feen-a-mint at drugstore. 15c and 25c.

Positive Relief for MALARIA!

Sure End to Chills and Fever!

Here's real relief for Malaria—Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic! Quickly it stops the chills and fever and restores your body to comfort. Many remedies will merely alleviate the symptoms of Malaria temporarily, but Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic goes all the way and completely rids your system of the infection.

Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic is a real corrective of Malaria because it contains two things. First, tasteless quinine which kills the Malarial infection in the blood. Second, tonic iron which helps overcome the ravages of the chills and fever and fortifies against further attack. Play safe! Take Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. It now comes in two sizes—50c and $1. The $1 size contains 2 1/2 times as much as the 50c size and gives you 25% more for your money. Get bottle today at any drug store.

Market Place

Remember, the more you tell, the quicker you sell.

1 time, 10c line, min. 30c

For consecutive insertions, minimum of 3 lines in one ad.

3 times, 5c line, min. 50c

5 times, 5c line, min. 90c

25 times, 3 1/2c line, min. $2.75

(Average 5 1/2 words to the line)

NOTE—Want ads will be accepted with the understanding that the bill is payable on presentation of statement, before the first publication.

Phone 768

SERVICES OFFERED

SERVICES OFFERED—Hope Steam Laundry. Modern equipment. Quality work guaranteed. Suit cleaned and pressed cash and carry 50c 24-31p

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Can yourself a yearling. Some nice ones. Three miles South of Hope. Phone 608. 23-61c

AUTO GLASS FOR ALL CARS. P. A. Lewis Motor Co. 11. 26-31p

FOR SALE—Team mules, harness, wagon, plow tools, also milk cow and calf. W. H. Bryant, Rt. 1 Spring Hill Road. 26-31p

FOR SALE—Twenty acres in good state of cultivation. Adjoining city limits. Small cash down payment balance on easy terms. George M. Green, 413 South Main. Phone 347-J. 26-31p

FOR SALE—Cook Stove. Apply Mrs. W. M. Ramsey. 26-31p

FOR SALE—Must sell a beautiful mahogany piano. This instrument has been used only in studio. Originally sold for $235.00 will sacrifice for $195.00. Terms to right party. Apply J. W. Wellborn, 206 West 13th St. Phone 405-W. 26-31p

Best Paint Sold—Hope Bldg. Mat. Co.

BARGAINS IN USED CARS. P. A. Lewis Motor Co.

Wall Paper—Hope Bldg. Mat. Co.

USED PARTS FOR ALL CARS. P. A. Lewis Motor Co.

FOR RENT

FOR RENT. Two houses, modern, close in. Rents $15.00 and $20.00 per month. Phone 364 or 697. 26-31p

WANTED

WANTED TO BUY—Oil burning cook stove and oil burning heater. Mrs. Tyler. 210 N. Main. 26-31p

LOST

LOST—Blue horse mule, weight 1,100 pounds, branded "ERA" on right shoulder. Notify Herbert Banderson, route One Paines or FERA office, Hope, Ark. 23-61c

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

By AHERN

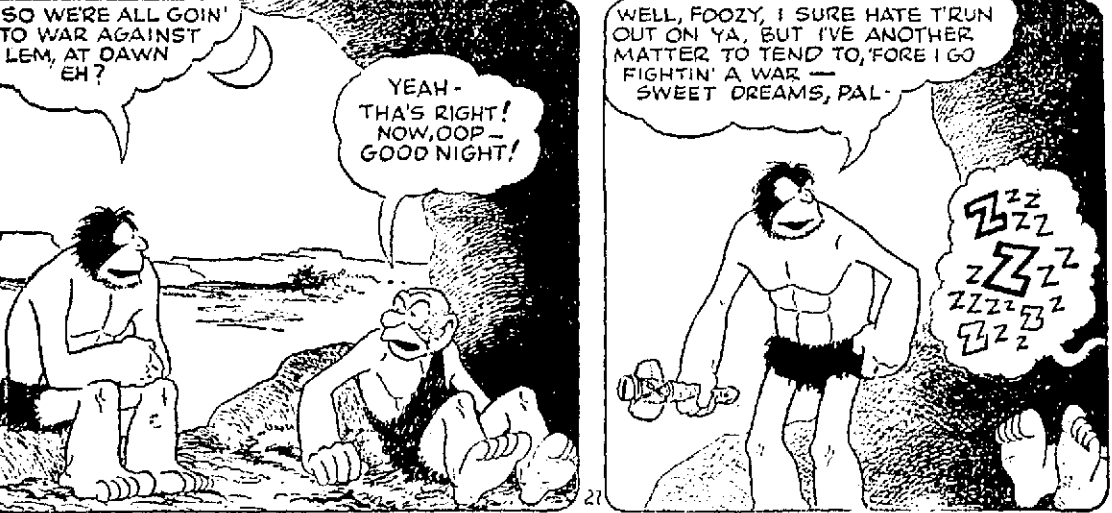

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

Ready to Push Off!

ALLEY OOP

In the Stillness of the Night!

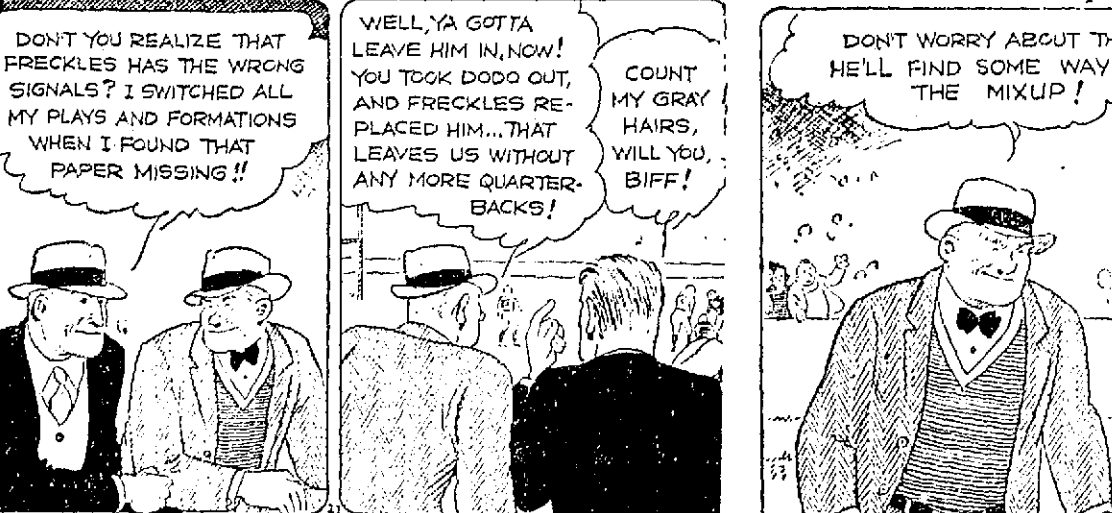

WASH TUBBS

What a Prince!

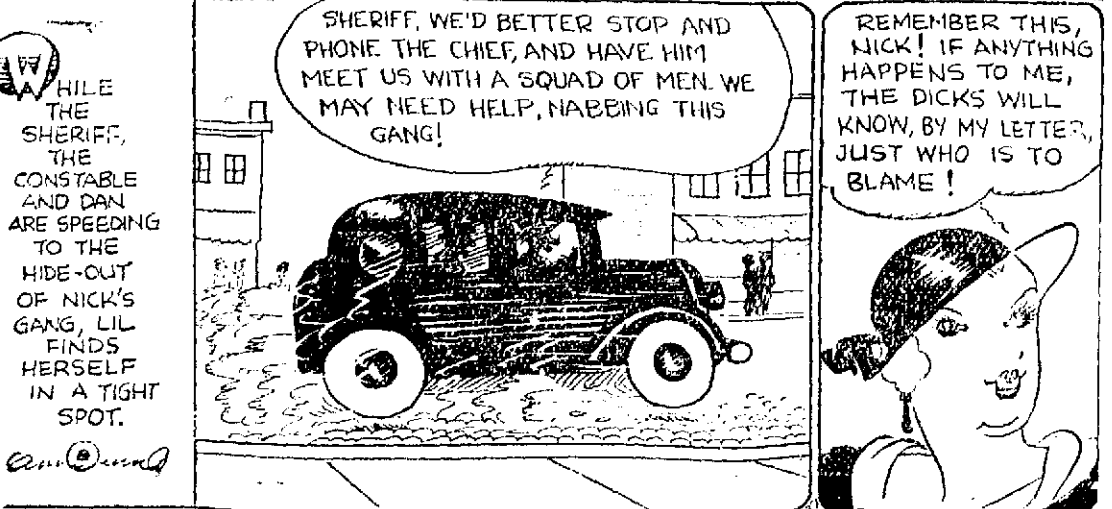

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

Suspense!

THE NEWFANGLES (Mom'n Pop)

Hot in Pursuit!

OUT OUR WAY

By WILLIAMS

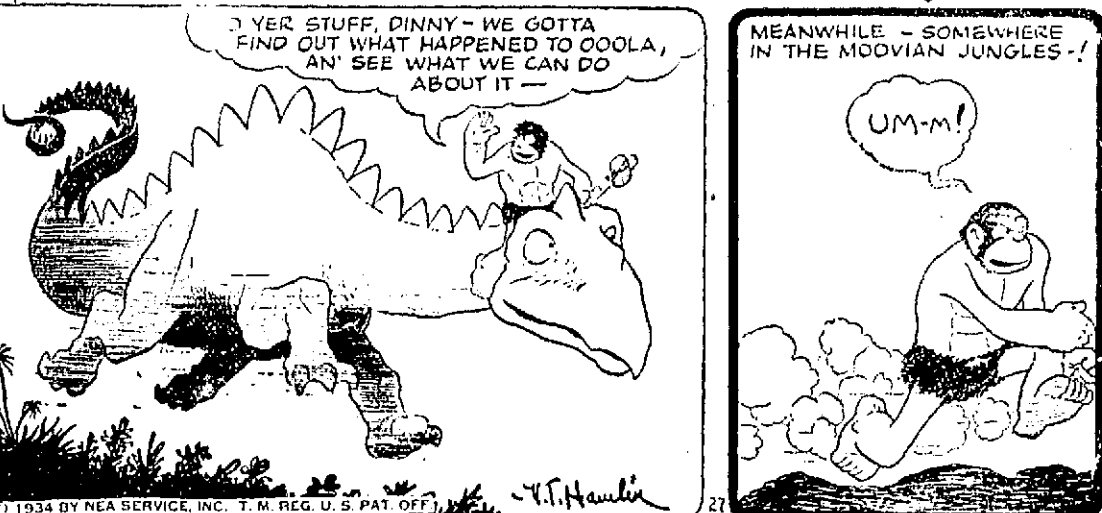

THE EXPERT AND THE WIZARD

By MARTIN

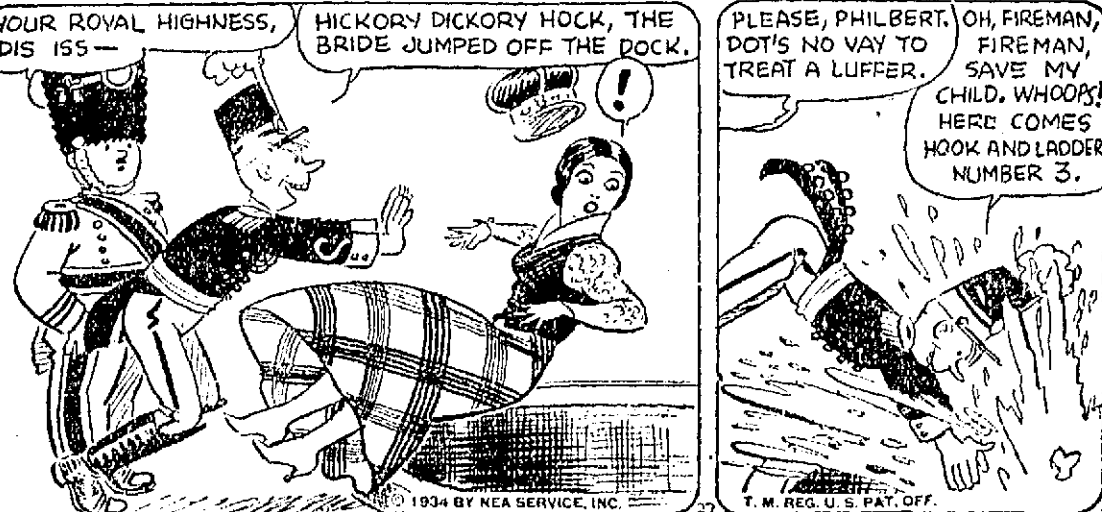

MEANWHILE - SOMEWHERE IN THE MOOVIAN JUNGLES -!

By HAMLIN

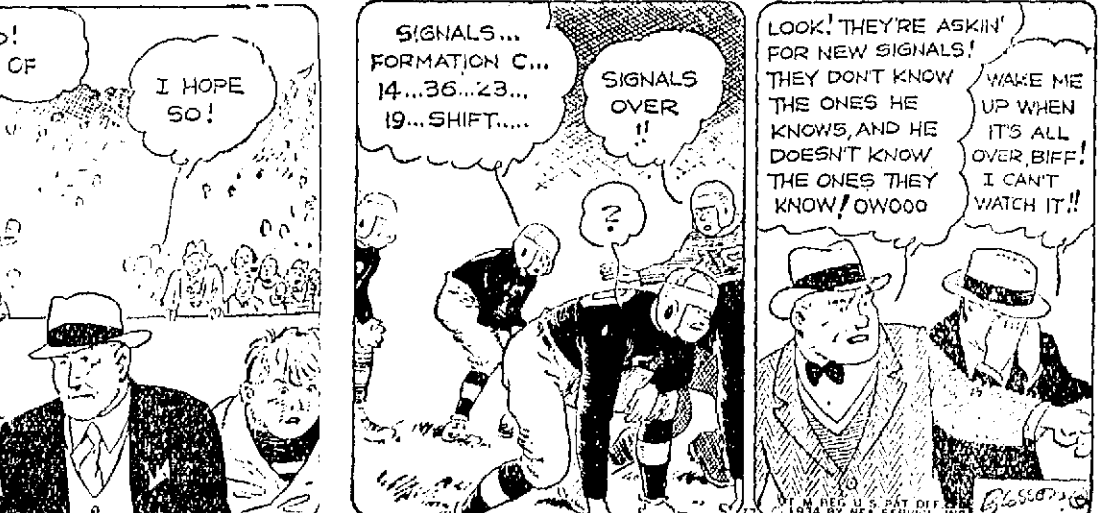

YOUR ROYAL HIGHNESS, HICKORY DICKORY HOCK, THE BRIDE JUMPED OFF THE ROCK.

By CRANE

SIGNALS... FORMATION C... 14...36...23... 19...SHIFT... SIGNALS OVER!!

By BLOSSER

YOU'RE A BIGGER FOOL THAN I FIGURED YOU WERE, NICK!

By COWAN

